

BIBLE STUDIES

At Hopewell, we continue to offer a variety of Bible studies to help you grow in your walk of faith. Additional studies (such as for Advent and Lent) will be offered throughout the year, so please be sure to check current bulletins and Newsletters for the most updated information.

Disciple Bible Studies

The Disciple format is an in-depth study of Scripture, which we as Christians need to do to understand who we are and who we belong to. The following two Disciple classes will be offered beginning in September, 2018:

- A Disciple IV Bible Study Class will be facilitated by Mike Puckett. Tentatively scheduled from 5:30 - 7 p.m. on Sundays starting September 9th, this 32-week course focuses half on the Old Testament (“The Writings” consisting of twelve OT books) and half on the New Testament (John and Revelation). The course stresses daily readings, with a 90-minute class time composed of a video commentary by Bible scholars and then group discussion. Anyone who has already completed Disciple I as a minimum is invited to participate. If you are interested in attending, or would like more information, please contact either Mike or Pastor Allan.

- Invitation to John is an 11-week Bible study that will also begin the first week in September with the day and time to be determined by the participants. Phil Jones will facilitate this video-based Bible study, which also incorporates the same focus on in-depth study of the Biblical text, weekly preparation, and accountability in a small group setting. However, there is no pre-requisite for taking this class. If you are interested in learning more about John’s Gospel, please sign up using the sheet posted on the bulletin board by Room A-2 in the Administrative Building hallway, or contact Phil for more information.
